

John Doe

xxxxxxxxxx, xxxxxxxx, NY 33328
212-xxx-xxxx | xxx

Education

Non target university | xxx, xx

Bachelor of Science in Finance and Economics

Anticipated Graduation Date - May 2016

GPA: 3.2; Dean's list 3 semesters.

Relevant coursework: Analysis of Financial Statement Presentation, Excel for Business Spreadsheets, Senior Seminar in Finance, Investments, Financial Management of the Firm, Problems in Financial Management

Work & Leadership Experience

(Privately Held Investment Bank), New York, NY

Summer Analyst

May 2014 – August 2014

- Worked closely with managing director and contributed to book building in order to provide sell-side VC advisory to middle market companies across the biotechnology industry
- Familiarized with financial statements such as, 8-K and 10-Q's, by analyzing SEC filings through Edgar on a daily basis; sourced qualified investors
- Worked on IPO Transactions and helped support a deal team raise $51 million for an early stage biotechnology company, performed due diligence on similar companies focused on life sciences
- Exposed to investment banking concepts such as warrants, red herrings, and options as well as valuation concepts including comparable company, and precedent transactions

KPMG Consulting Case Competition, (University Name)

Team Leader

- Led team of 4 to analyze a case based on efficiently controlling the risk and national budget of Qatar while overcoming controversial difficulties the country is facing in preparing to host the FIFA 2022 World Cup
- Estimated size and potential growth of sporting industry revenue and constructed 8-year forward looking financial model which incorporated expected synergies to quantify long term profitability of sunk costs
- Ranked 2nd place based on presentation and realistic proposals displayed through Excel and PowerPoint

College Activities

Case Competition Club, School, City, State

Vice President

September, 2013 – Present

- Completed numerous case studies with end-goal of producing a framework to instruct underclassmen on strategic planning and financial analysis to prepare for future competitions
- Implemented new method for recruitment which increased active membership by over 25%
- Traveled to Washington D.C to compete in the McDonough Hilltop Business Strategy Challenge, performed due diligence on non-profit company in order to project financial statements and work numbers into a feasible business solution which maximized profit as well as employment opportunity

Financial Managers Association,

Member

July, 2013 - Present

- Performed in depth analysis of the stock market to participate in stock forecasting competitions, in which members act as analysts that recommend either buy, sell, or hold and forecast future stock price

Other Interests

Interests: Snowboarding, Traveling, Soccer, Basketball, Reading, College Football