

Full Name

Address 1st line

Address 2nd line

Phone · Email

EDUCATION

Semi/Non Target LAC (think Bates/Bucknell/Macalester)

Middle of nowhere

Bachelor of Arts, Mathematics and Financial Economics

Class of 2015

- GPA: 3.3
- Related coursework: Advanced Corporate Finance, Investment, International Finance, Microeconomic Theory, Linear Algebra, Multivariable Calculus, Financial Modeling, Industrial Organization, Probability

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & EXPERIENCE

Target University Econs Research Center | Research Assistant

Place #1, US | Summer 2013

- Conducted statistical analysis on interday price movement across 38 days of over 400 stocks using Excel and Stata. Produced reports on recognized patterns, helped navigate quantitative findings of research.
- Reproduced findings of impacts of corporate governance change (i.e. shareholder activism) on companies' stock return

A tech start-up based in New York | Analyst Don't know what to put here bc I work home from my PC | Summer 2013 - Present

- Project: [name of the product I was working on with the name + what it is.]
- Implemented core mathematical models measuring [---] of major metropolitan areas' [---], using data mined and refined from various sources. Produced reports on findings and recommendations for model improvement
- Draft long- and short-term marketing strategy (ongoing)
- Assist with preparing roadshow presentations for capital raising (ongoing).
- Worked alongside with the company's lawyer to ensure compliance of privacy law

My school's career development center | Experiential Learning Assistant

Middle of nowhere | Fall 2012 – Present

- Monitor database of institution-funded interns. Assist with managing donor relations
- Compile and improve career development resources for underrepresented groups of students

European large-cap bank with huge operation in Asia | Wealth Management Intern

Some frontier country | Summer 2012

- Project: [a derivative instrument helping to hedge against exchange rate fluctuations. Was newly introduced in the local market as a WM product]
- Accelerated logistical processes for [product] team's roadshow to high net worth clients, reducing related administrative costs by 24%
- Conducted research on regional demographics and socio-economics to help adjust target clientele and improve sales strategy, resulted in an increase of 147% in account registration for [product]

College's Investment Club | Treasurer

Middle of nowhere | Fall 2011 – Present

- Led a team of 3 first-year students to compete for the first time in [some regional stock trading competition in 2011], placed 4th out of 22 teams of experienced upperclassmen
- Executed funding, content and logistics for events i.e. [event names]

Selective Professional Events

- BB#1 event (New York, NY) Spring 2013
- A conference by some well-connected foundation (Washington, D.C.) Spring 2013
- BB#2 event (New York, NY) Fall 2012
- Training The Street: Corporate Valuation workshop, sponsored by BB#3 Fall 2012
- Wall Street Prep Boot Camp: Financial Modeling, Valuation and Interview [free attendance, paid by college] Fall 2012
- BB#4 event (New York, NY) Spring 2012
- 2-day Business Seminar at a top 5 LAC Spring 2012

SKILLS, ACTIVITIES & INTERESTS

SKILLS

- Languages: Fluent: English; Intermediate: French; Elementary: German
- Computers: MS Office (Word, Excel, Powerpoint); Stata; MySQL; Adobe Dreamweaver CS6

ACTIVITIES & INTERESTS

- Classical music, German opera, Squash, Running, Architecture Club, Mathematical Modeling Club