

DAVID K. MARSHALL

6311 Chimney Wood Ct, Alexandria, VA 22306 • 714-917-5991 • david.k.marshall2@gmail.com

EDUCATION

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Arts, International Relations, (2008), GPA: 3.82 – Cum Laude

- USMC Officer Candidate; managed a physical training program for 10 officer candidates that prepared persons for the rigorous physical requirements of Officer Candidate School.
-

EXPERIENCE

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS (2008 – Present)

Intelligence Planner / FBI Liaison Officer (2014 – Present)

Washington D.C.

- Created and led diverse multi-agency team that spearheaded effort to establish an initial threat overview for the 2017 Presidential Inauguration, which resulted in increase awareness of strategic threats identified and findings communicated to the official 2017 Presidential Inauguration Intelligence Subcommittee.
- Solved the unique challenge of being a small team with limited resources through the persistent marketing of unit capability to the FBI that increased interaction over 500% in two years and led to new intelligence collaboration on global threats, resulting in increased security for DOD members and installations in Washington D.C.
- Ranked 1 of 17 junior officers in unit; selected for the 2015 Sentinel Award based on personal initiative, innovative problem solving, and overall leadership capability.

Company Executive Officer (2010-2012)

Camp Pendleton, CA

- Under time constraints, developed and managed a comprehensive training plan for 175-person organization (company) in preparation for crisis management in both Asia and Afghanistan that resulted in the highest operational pace and mission success rate in Afghanistan out of four companies.
- Created a plan, organized a cross-functional 200-person team, and implemented the methods used to provide the 5,000 residents of Oshima Island, Japan, with cleared roads, access to mainland Japan, and infrastructure improvement following the earthquake and tsunami natural disaster of 2011.
- Bypassed bureaucratic hurdles that were created through geographic separation from executive level leadership, by implementing a unique intelligence collaboration process that resulted in the interdiction of $1M in narcotics, the destruction of two improvised bomb factories, and one weapons cache.
- Ranked 1 of 30 junior officers and selected for Commandants Career Level Education Board 2012 (Top 10% of junior officers in the Marine Corps based off of mission focused outcomes, character, leadership, and intellect)

Battalion Intelligence Officer (2010)

Camp Pendleton, CA

- Supervised a team of five Intelligence specialists and prepared 1200-person organization for deployment to Asia through threat assessments, training programs, and guidance communicated to executive level leadership.

Platoon Commander, Weapons Platoon (2010)

Camp Pendleton, CA

- Led 30-person cross-functional team; mentored four middle management leaders in autonomous decision making capability, which prepared organization for deployment to Asia.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Volunteered as international student mentor for Saudi Arabian Military Officer, Expeditionary Warfare School; panelist for The Close-Up Foundation that mentored over 500 high school students on military service.
- Avid outdoor enthusiast who enjoys running trail marathons, cycling into work, backpacking, and fly fishing on the Deschutes River, OR.

HONORS AND COMMENDATIONS

- Combat Action Ribbon, Joint Service Commendation Medal, two Joint Service Achievement Medals, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, and Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.