

XX XXXX

Address, • Seoul, Korea • (PO Box) xxx-xx
CELL (82) xx-xxx-xxxx • E-MAIL xxx@hanmail.net

EDUCATION

Seoul National University

Bachelor of Arts in Economics

Seoul, ROK

March, 2012 - Present

- Cumulative GPA: 95.1%, Major GPA: 95.8%
- Full tuition scholarship
- Green Leadership Program (GLP) Candidate: GLP is a series of interdisciplinary courses designed to foster 'green leaders' among Korea's future leaders and establish a green development paradigm in the country. Program accredited by SNU and Korean Ministry of Environment.

University of British Columbia

Faculty of Arts; exchange

Vancouver, BC, Canada

September, 2014 – December, 2014

- Environmental Economics (Grade: 95%, class average: 71%)
- Microeconomic Policy (Grade: 81%, class average: 72%, report and presentation with the highest mark in class)

EXPERIENCE

Busan Jinhae Free Economic Zone (BJFEZ)

Investment Intern

Busan, ROK

January, 2011

- Contributed to plan to attract foreign capital investment into newly designated free economic zone
- Conducted research focused on select target foreign firms in the recreational and hospitality industries
- Liaised with foreign company representatives to find out companies' needs and investment criteria
- Resulted in 5 out of 7 targeted firms eventually contributing to the development of BJFEZ

LEADERSHIP & EXTRA- CURRICULAR

Seminars in Washington D.C. Think Tanks

Washington D.C., USA

January, 2013 – February, 2013

- Attended seminars at Think Tanks and institutions: CFR, CSIS, CRS, Brookings Institution, KEI, Embassy of ROK in the US and World Bank
- Studied lectures from renowned scholars with various perspectives on economics and US and Korean relations
- Created and led a research group comprised of students from around the world. Interviewed civilians in Washington, wrote a report concluding that diversity in the US society contributed to its development

Global Volunteers

Seoul, ROK

July, 2012 – February, 2013

- As an environmental volunteer, developed and executed plan to stem desertification in Inner Mongolia by planting trees in strategic areas in July 2012
- Led and organized voluntary group of 500 volunteers. Was responsible for planning events and managing the social media accounts of said group.

SKILLS

- Fluency in English, Korean; Elementary proficiency in Chinese (Mandarin)
- Experience with Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Excel