

XXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX

Address | Phone Number | Email

EDUCATION

University of Oxford

MPhil. Public Policy and Economics

Oxford, UK

Expected August 2016

- Honours: Distinction. £20,000 Wolfson Academic Scholarship (selected from 185 students)
- Modules: Accounting, Corporate Finance, Business Strategy, Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, Technology Strategy

Edinburgh University

BEng Mechanical Engineering and Management

Edinburgh, UK

Graduated July 2014

- Grade: First Class Honours (graduated top of 44 in class). Best Department Dissertation Prize (from 120 students)

XXX College

A Levels: Mathematics (A), Further Mathematics (A), Economics (A)

XXX, UK

August 2010

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The World Bank

Intern, Global Trade and Investment (placement during degree studies)

Various

January – May 2016

- Participated in evaluating, structuring and negotiating project finance transactions in the infrastructure sector in Lebanon
- Created investor presentations for 3 energy projects worth £350m involving valuation, industry research, capital market analysis and a breakdown of strategic opportunities for clients

PwC

Intern, Corporate Finance

XX, XX

March – April 2013

- Assisted firms in the areas of mergers & acquisitions, debt and equity capital raising, financial advisory and valuations
- Performed due diligence to evaluate acquisition targets to increase a FTSE 100 firm's domestic market share by 11%
- Utilised DCF and comparable company analyses; drafted marketing materials for a £250m client acquisition target

Goldman Sachs

Summer Analyst, Commodities Products

XX, XX

June 2012 – August 2012

- Advised FTSE 250 gas firm on monetary, fiscal and geopolitical trends affecting their £16m commodities portfolio
- Modelled 3Y oil and carbon trading market outlook via historical trend analysis of 5Y macroeconomic data for client
- Built Excel valuation model to restructure the gas firm's £3m Q3 FY12 carbon investment strategy; 14% return that Q3

HM Government

Intern, Economic Research

London, UK

June – August 2011

- Analysed eurozone capital market activity and macroeconomic trends to forecast 2Y EUR/GBP currency rate volatility
- Conducted econometric modelling; projected eurozone interest rates to fall <2% strengthening EUR/GBP by 0.4%
- Forecasted EUR/GBP impact on euro bond markets; co-drafted briefing for the Treasury Minister XXXX XXXX

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Saïd Business School, University of Oxford, Academic Chair

October 2015 – May 2016

- Joint chaired weekly School Committee meetings representing the academic issues of 4,000 students to senior staff
- Restructured Saïd's Alumni Network leading to a 12% (800 people) membership increase raising £60,000 revenue

XXX Social Enterprise, Founder (founded during degree studies)

May 2011 – June 2015

- Managed 18 finance professionals providing capital-raising advisory services to education-based social enterprises
- Presented TED Talk after securing £50,000 investment from a leading firm and helping 25 enterprises raise £120,000

Edinburgh University Students' Union, Finance Chair

June 2013 – June 2014

- Managed £12m budget and oversaw Student Union investment strategy on behalf of 14,000 students and 3,000 staff
- Negotiated and structured a successful 8% higher offer from Café Nero on their initial £360,000 bid to open on campus

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Awards: Prime Minister's XXXX Achievement Award, XXX Student of the Year, XXX Future 500 Prize

Activities: Oxford Union Society XXX Officer, Tab Newspaper Economics Editor, XXX Charity Trustee

Sports: Cricket and tennis (XXX College Oxford first team), squash, rowing, football