

XXXX

XX

XXX | XXX

EDUCATION

The Pennsylvania State University

XXX

Bachelor of Science in Finance

Expected May 2015

- GPA: 2.80 / 4.00 Senior GPA: 3.45/4.00
- Relevant Coursework: Portfolio Management and Analysis, Small Business Institute; Consultant, DCF Valuation, Asset Valuation, Student Managed Fund Analyst

WORK & LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

XX.; XX

XXX

Vehicle Restoration Specialist

November 2011 – Present

- Worked 30+ hours per week while also enrolled in a full course load in order to achieve success
- Responsible for detailing up to ten or more cars per day and correcting every manageable flaw
- Managed and completed multiple tasks at once, as a team in order to meet strict deadlines
- Devised a training plan for new car detailers and set them up to succeed within the company

The Pennsylvania State University

XXX

XXX

May 2014 – August 2014

- Selected as a student ambassador to interview a potential candidate for the Assistant Director of Civic Engagement position
- Designed electronic file systems and maintained electronic and paper files
- Planned meetings and prepared conference rooms for directors
- Maintained an up-to-date department organizational chart

XXX

XXX

Marketing Internship, XXX

October 2013 – January 2014

- Implemented and evolved strategies to target new business opportunities and new markets
- Managed marketing campaigns to generate new business and to support partner and sales teams
- Managed the in-house advertising program consisting of print and media collateral pieces
- Presented on current promotions to the public at events

SKILLS, ACTIVITIES & INTERESTS

Technical Skills: Bloomberg Professional, Value Line Investment Survey, Thomson One Investext

Certifications & Training: Bloomberg Certificates; Core, Equities, Commodities, Fixed Income, Foreign Exchange; General Business Certificate; Advanced Business Certificate

Activities: Finance Club; The Intrieri Family Student-Managed Fund

Interests: Automotive Industry; Golfing, 2009 WPIAL Golf Semifinals at Pittsburgh National Golf Club